Community Invited to Event of the Year “Lighting the Way Gala”

ST. LOUIS, Mo (March 5, 2019) - United 4 Children invites the public to the event of the year “Lighting the Way Gala” from 5:30-9:30 p.m. Thursday, April 11 at the iconic Missouri Athletic Club located at 405 Washington Ave in St. Louis. This event promises an evening of delicious food, beverages, desserts and engaging entertainment by Pure Energy featuring Carolyn Mason. Attendees will enjoy bourbon and scotch tastings along with a live and silent auction.

“This year we are celebrating our 50th anniversary. It is an honor to be able to continue our work within the community and build the future one child at a time,” said Deanna Finch, Executive Director of United 4 Children. “Funds raised at this event will support our mission in educating and advocating for children who are at-risk by providing high-quality support to childcare and afterschool programs. This event provides an opportunity for donors and the community to come together for children in their community.”

Tickets are $125 per person. Ticket purchases and more information about the event is located at u4c.givesmart.com.

United 4 Children sets and maintains quality standards in early childhood and afterschool programs through trainings, mentoring and consultation sessions.
